RULES

1. Age is recognized as at 1st of January 2022. (Proof of age may be required).
2. NO ENTRY WILL BE ACCEPTED UNLESS FULL ENTRY FEES ARE RECEIVED.
3. Competitors must appear in the order shown in the official program, and if not present when called may render themselves liable to disqualification. No competitor can compete outside the time scheduled for their section.
4. The Committee reserves the right to amend the program at any time by varying the order of competitors.
5. A competitor may only enter his/her own age group, unless in a duo, trio, group or open section. Any competitor is also eligible to enter an open section although the work must be of open standard.
6. In duet/trio sections an individual may enter with different partners. These entries are limited to TWO. All names must be shown on the entry form or entries will not be accepted. However, in the event of a competitor not being able to perform, the Committee will allow a substitute.
7. No competitor shall be allowed to render the same item, or variation thereof, within the same discipline of the current Eisteddfod.
8. Prompting or assistance of any kind may not be given. Parents setting up props on the stage must leave the backstage area prior to the commencement of their child's item. Teachers will only be permitted backstage at the request of the Chairperson, or a member of the Committee or if in charge of a group aged 8 years & under.
9. A group section is defined as four (4) or more competitors, players, or actors.
10. It is the responsibility of the competitor and/or parent to list the correct section numbers on entry forms. The Committee accepts no responsibility for incorrect entries received.

11. COVID-19

Please be aware that any persons entering the Inverell Town Hall will be required to QR in or sign in, providing name and telephone number upon arrival each day.

Further restrictions may apply and will be outlined during the Eisteddfod.

ENTRY WRISTBANDS – The event will be ticketed – all attendees, excluding competitors are to purchase an entry wristband prior to the Eisteddfod.

Wristbands are to be worn throughout the entirety of your visit.

Adjudicator

12. The Adjudicator may divide, reduce or withdraw prizes, in any section, if a satisfactory standard is not reached.
13. No entry for a section will be accepted from any person who is or was, during the preceding six (6) months of the Eisteddfod, a pupil of the Adjudicator for that discipline.
14. Communication with the Adjudicator by teacher, competitors or parents during the competition is strictly forbidden. Failure to comply will mean immediate disqualification.
15. If, through unforeseen circumstances, the Adjudicator is unable to perform his/her duties, the committee reserves the right to appoint a substitute.
16. 1st, 2nd and 3rd will be awarded in all sections regardless of number of competitors, at the discretion of the adjudicator.
17. Protests, if any, are to be lodged with a Committee member within 30 minutes of the completion of the section concerned. A fee of $10 must accompany all protests and will be forfeited if the protest is deemed frivolous or unfounded.
18. The decision of the Committee in all questions or disputes arising out of, or not provided for in, these rules SHALL BE FINAL.

General

19. Teachers of the various arts are permitted to enter Open Sections.

20. MUSIC

The music files you submit are FINAL. Please ensure you are submitting the correct files as you WILL NOT be permitted to submit an alternative version.

Music files must be labelled with 'Section Number' 'Competitors number' 'Competitor Name',

Example D23_7_JaneSmith

Do not add any more or less information to your file names, any further information which is required will be entered on the music form which must be attached with the music files.

21. Offensive language or material in any section may risk disqualification.
22. Please be aware AGE APPROPRIATE SONGS MUST BE ADHERED TO OR THE COMPETITOR MAY BE PENALISED BY THE ADJUDICATOR.
23. Entries are final and no refunds will be given.
24. Each entrant, volunteer and member recognise that the Inverell Eisteddfod Society is insured for public liability which does not comprehensively cover injury to performers, and the individuals or schools must ensure that they are adequately covered whilst performing in these competitions or otherwise enter at their own risk. The Society takes care but is not responsible for the loss or damage of any item (eg books, papers, props, costumes, instruments or personal possessions of entrants).
25. Perpetual Trophies are open to Inverell Shire competitors and some including Aggregates are now open to all competitors a full list will be in Programme.

26. LOCAL COMPETITOR refers to competitors who reside within the Inverell Shire Local Government area.
27. Perpetual Awards: All perpetual trophies/awards not identified as 'local' will be open to all competitors eligible to be awarded by the adjudicator.

Copyright

28. For more information please contact AMCOS/APRA visit their website at www.apra.com.au or email apra@apra.com.au.

It is important that all competitors and teachers realise and understand their responsibilities as set out under the Australian Copyright Act 1968.

Rules Specific to Dance Only

29. In Dance Sections, vocal backing is not permitted in the vocal section of any Song & Dance item. Some newer backing tapes may have fragments of added harmonization, which is acceptable.
30. Plain coloured leotards are to be worn for all Dance Improvisation Sections.
31. ACRO – No routine in any section other than Acro Section may have more than 4 tricks. Tricks are classified as any move where the hips go over the head – eg walkovers, round offs, aerials, baranis, handsprings. Each one of these elements is deemed as a trick, failure to comply with the 4 trick limit may result in disqualification from placing. All Acro routines are performed at the Competitors own risk.
32. Videography and photography by members of the audience in the auditorium during the Eisteddfod is illegal and strictly prohibited. A professional videographer and/or photographer will be arranged by the Society. If these services are not available, refer to the Secretary's Table to review rules associated.
- a) To comply with the Privacy Act, YOU ARE ONLY PERMITTED TO VIDEO/PHOTOGRAPHY YOUR OWN CHILD. If this ruling is not adhered to you WILL be asked to leave. All entry to the hall is subject to this proviso.
- b) The Society has the right to record, film, broadcast, telecast, videotape or photography any entrant, items or event in the Eisteddfod without notification (except for Schools that provide NO MEDIA RELEASE). By submitting an entry, the entrant automatically grants permission for the Society to use their image for publicity or promotional purposes. Compensation cannot be claimed by entrant if the Society uses their image for publicity or promotional purposes.
33. Costumes and music choices should be age appropriate.
34. Commencing with the wrong music will be tolerated, provided the dancer has not begun the routine. If a competitor has a memory lapse and runs offstage, they will be permitted to attempt their routine again at the end of the section if time permits, and at the discretion of the adjudicator and committee for a critique only. Prompting is not permitted.
35. Programs will be emailed – no charge. When entering through Comps-Online, if you need to submit a second entry form due to missing items, please contact us at inverell.eisteddfod@hotmail.com to receive a one-time use coupon code to waive the fee. Alternatively, limited programs will be available for purchase at the venue.
36. Competitor passes are compulsory, please collect these from the door on arrival for your first performance.

CHAMPIONSHIPS

Items performed during the Eisteddfod may NOT be repeated in the Championship Section.

Championships will be run regardless of the number of entries received and will be awarded at the discretion of the Adjudicator.

Rules Specific to Music, Speech & Drama

37. Backing tracks or single instrument accompaniment can be used but must not contain lyric or vocal backing. BACKING TRACKS WILL BE ALLOWED IN ALL SECTION INCLUDING CHAMPIONSHIPS.
38. Arts for all competitors ARE permitted vocal backing.
39. The Committee does not provide an Official Accompanist. Competitors are responsible for providing their own accompanist. However, if this is not possible please contact the music coordinator for a list of local people prepared to act in this role. Competitors should make arrangements and negotiate fees with the accompanist at least three weeks prior to the performance.
40. Novice Sections are for students who have received tuition in their discipline for less than 12 months, prior to the opening of the eisteddfod. Novice students are not eligible for Championship sections.
41. ADJUDICATOR'S COPY (IN RELATION TO MUSIC/SPEECH & DRAMA ENTRIES)
Set Pieces - The adjudicator must work from an original.
Own Choice - If you own original music controlled by an AMCOS Publisher you may make a single photocopy for the use of the adjudicator. The photocopy is made and used solely for the purpose of adjudication and must be clearly marked "Adjudication copy only". The Eisteddfod Committee destroys the copy upon completion of the adjudication. A copy of the AMCOS "Performer's Declaration" (attachment A in the syllabus and included in the program) must be attached to the photocopy
42. The law of Copyright applies to the Eisteddfod. If not performing from memory, all competitors must perform from the original copy of music, poetry etc. Adjudicator's copies must be clearly marked with Section Number and Competitor's Number. A Performer's Declaration Form must be attached to each copy. These forms will be available with the Eisteddfod Program and at the Secretary's Table during the Eisteddfod. All photocopies will be destroyed at the completion of the adjudication. It is the responsibility of all performers to ensure that their performance is not in breach of copyright. For more information please go to www.apra.com.au

Please read these rules carefully, especially rules concerning Championships. Failure to comply with any of the rules and conditions may involve disqualification and withholding of prizes. All entries are received subject to these rules and conditions, which shall not be subject to any appeal at Law as being contrary to the spirit of friendly competition upon which the Eisteddfod is based.
